

Irina Mashlenko Joins Danilov & Partners

We are pleased to announce that Irina Mashlenko has joined the firm's legal team as Senior Counsel. Ms. Mashlenko will focus on supporting the Banking and Finance practice at Danilov & Partners.

Irina has more than 25 years of significant experience advising clients on various aspects of Russian law, including banking and finance, corporate governance, capital markets, currency control and bankruptcy proceedings. Previously Irina was one of the partners at the Moscow office of Allen & Overy leading its banking practice. Ms. Mashlenko has represented clients on syndicated and bilateral secured and unsecured loans, pre-export finance transactions, project finance transactions, assets-backed Russian domestic and cross-border securitizations, issuance of Eurobonds in form of loan participation notes and credit-linked notes.

Irina has been recognized as a leading banking and finance lawyer by Legal 500 and Chambers Global. Ms. Mashlenko is registered with the New York State Bar Association as a foreign lawyer. Irina received her degree from Moscow State University in 1982 and Postgraduate Diploma in 1988 from the USSR Academy of Sciences — Institute of State and Law.

“Irina has outstanding experience working on top notch banking and finance projects and we are looking forward to develop our practice further to meet our client's needs,” said Andrei Danilov, partner at Danilov & Partners.

Danilov & Partners' Banking and Finance practice include:

- Corporate Acquisition and Asset-Based Finance
- Derivatives & Structured Products
- Project Finance
- Real Estate Finance
- Transportation Finance

For more information, please contact us at adanilov@danilovpartners.com.