

The law firm Danilov and Partners has strengthened its position in the international IFLR1000 ranking

The well-known international ranking of IFLR1000 has published the results of its research into the best law firms in the field of financial and corporate law. Danilov and Partners has improved its position compared to last year within the Corporate and M&A section.

We would like to thank our clients for their feedback and hope for a long and productive cooperation.